In Review - "QUILTIN' IN THE WOODS"

by Shantelle Cox
 The retreat was great! Everyone had a great time sewing and getting to know one another better. A great big Thank You to Cat Beckstead for another fabulous mystery quilt! We had a great time sewing and whining together. Note: please bring your mystery quilts in whatever state of completion. Cat would like to take pictures of our quilts for her scrap book.

Those who were there Thursday and Friday afternoons had a close up look at a moose who was eating the bushes near the cabin. And then there was the snow. I estimate that I cleaned about 6 inches of snow off my van, twice, for about a foot of snow fall. Thankfully, it didn't all stick and snow us in for days. We would have eventually run out of quilting projects to work on. Thank you everyone for bring food assignments and snacks.

Thank you to Paulette Adams for building a nice warm fire for us on Thursday. Between the warmth of the fire and the snow outside, we felt very cozy and comfortable in the cabin while we sewed. And on a personal note, thank you everyone for helping me with the clean up on Saturday. I've said before that the clean up is the most stressful part for me and you all make it so much easier.

Thanks again to everyone who came and for making this years retreat so much fun. Please let me know if you have ideas or suggestions for next year.

Tips, Tricks & Tools

While at a hand quilting class I had a tip on how to stop your thread from coming off the spool when were not using it. Here are all the wonderful tips that we all came up with:

- ✂ Plastic tubing cut lengthwise will slip over and hug the end of your thread.
- ✂ Rubber Bands

- ✂ Glad Press 'n' Seal will wrap those ends up tight (found in the grocery store).

To prepare batting for a quilt, place it unfolded in the dryer with a wet washcloth till it is warm, (about 15 minutes). This technique will get rid of the fold creases and shrink any cotton fibers in it.

Happy quilting,

Mary Walther
