December 2023

A Note from the President

It has been a wonderful year of learning, making, and sharing our love of quilting! I hope that something new sparked your interest along the way.   I recently read an article that we never actually "arrive" anywhere, we are only on the way. Life continues to flow, as we make our way from one point to the next. Then the next… and the next.   This has been a year of growing and stretching for myself as well. I've been inspired and moved by your beautiful creations and to see the joy that quilting brings to your lives. Thank you for being so willing to share your passion.

You should have received an invitation to our Christmas Party with all the details in a previous email. Check it for details. We'll also have time for Sew & Tell, so bring those too. Hope to see you all there!

>> PLEASE RSVP << We'll need to know how many to plan for at the dinner, please take a moment to text YES along with your name to my phone: (435) 503-7412   ~Deonn

HVQ 2024

Paige would love your input to learn a little about you and to help plan the programs for next year! Please fill out this survey and give us your feedback! Thanks! https://forms.gle/pt6KrsrqKxNyFULs5

If the link does not work for you (you may need a Gmail or Yahoo account), paper copies will be available at the Christmas party.

Paige is also looking for volunteers to head up the Round Robin and Friendship Block Exchange groups next year.

THANK YOU to those of you in the guild who are sharing their treasured quilts as part of the Smithsonian Exhibit at the Library,

CROSSROADS:
Change in Rural America.

Come early to guild and to browse through the exhibit and see the quilts on display. The exhibit runs through January 12th.
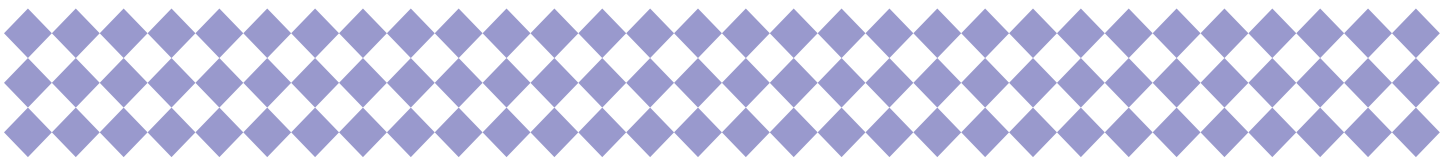

"Sew"lutions

Hi fellow Quilters. Here's my final Sewloution for 2023. I stumbled onto a cool series of videos on making handmade quilt labels. I am so excited about this. I've ordered supplies to make my own. Amy Latta has a series of 7 videos on simple writing skills, doodles, borders, and ideas for making your own labels. Missouri Star Quilt Company puts it on. Click on this link and see for yourself.

Please join us on HVQ's private FACEBOOK Group! This is the opportunity for current paid members to share quilty news, ask questions, show us what you're working on between meetings, and share photos of quilts you give away. We want to see! And, in case you miss a meeting, Sew & Tell photos will be posted here each month.

Remote monthly meetings will be available through ZOOM.
