PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Have you ever noticed that talking with a friend can unlock your brain and free it when you're faced with quilting dilemmas? I think it's because you have to sort out your thoughts, put them in order, and then hear the problem voiced aloud. It gives you a chance to view your project through someone else's eyes.

I've also noticed that when the hour is late and your friends are all in bed talking out loud can be a good alternative. It seems to unlock the wheels and gears in your head and solutions seem to come.

I thought I might be the only person who does this, but when we were at the quilt retreat I heard a lot of talking over at the cutting table when there was only one person there! I could hear mumbling over numbers, making sure math had been figured correctly before cutting. I think everybody needs somebody to talk aloud with, whether it comes from within or, best of all, a knowledgeable friend.

A Scrappy Log Cabin Quilt

Log Cabin Quilt Pillows

THIS MONTH JULY QUILT MEETING

This Month Debbie Proctor will be giving a demonstration on how to make scrappy Log Cabin Quilts.

LIBRARY QUILT SHOW

The Library Quilt Show is July 2 - July 13 (which is this week!). That means I need some quilts pretty quick (before quilt guild next Thursday). If you're interested in displaying a quilt at the beginning of the week, please leave me a message on my answering machine (654-4917) and I'll get back with you when I get home). Otherwise, I'll still need some quilts on Thursday, so PLEASE bring a quilt to guild meeting with you that you wouldn't mind showing off! Make sure it has your name and the name of the person who quilted it attached and so I can print it up for the actual display.

THE QUILT SHOW IN THE BARN

Saturday, September 29 in Salt Lake City. More information on this later.

Four members of the UQG have their beautiful works of art on display at the International Art Competition Exhibit at the Church History Museum in Salt Lake City, just west of Temple Square. The 198 piece exhibit of paintings, sculptures, textiles, etc., will continue until October 13, 2012. The UQG members include Carol B. Johnson, Donna Moyer, Ann Seely and Jodi Warner. Jodi's quilt was purchased by the museum to become part of their permanent collection.

THANKSGIVING POINT QUILT SHOW

July 28, 10 to 5 pm. There will be about 7 or 8 well known quilters who will be hanging their quilts in the gardens and will also be there to talk to you about their quilting. The cost is $5.00 with your Utah Quilt Guild membership card. Regular price is $10.00 to enter the park.

SPRINGVILLE QUILT SHOW

July 14 to August 29, a must see for every quilter. The museum is closed on Mondays and has extended hours on Wednesdays. On July 18, from 9:30 to 3:30, the Utah Valley Guild will hold their July Quilt Fair at the museum. So, in addition to seeing the quilt show, there will be classes, a merchants mall, a silent auction, a tasters table with a chocolate fondue bar and a yard sale (outside). There will also be two days of trunk shows at the museum featuring local quilt artists. The trunk shows are Wednesday, August 8 from 6 to 8:30 pm and on Friday, August 10, from 11 to 1:30, two days that you will not want to miss.

THIS IS THE PLACE HERITAGE PARK:

There are many activities at the park this summer. See the separate flyer for what is going on.

THE UTAH QUILT FEST

Will be held in St. George this year, September 18-22. Brochures are available from Barb Murdock for anyone who would like one. Don't forget about making a mini quilt for the Utah Quilt Fest. This is a great fund raiser for the guild and a fun event for everyone involved.

Also, remember we need to have some representation from our area for the friendship quilt that Wendy Jones is promoting. The blocks need to be turned in by Quilt Fest.
