Salvage Edge Dress

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Are you ready for the ultimate idea in making the most use of all of the fabric you buy? It's time for salvaged edge projects! When I started learning about the potential for salvaged edges I couldn't help lamenting all the salvaged edges I've thrown away over the years. It kills me to think about it! Especially now that I'm making projects and realize I need more of a certain color.

In speaking about salvaged edge quilting, Mark Lipinski has said, "we can use every itty bitty piece of our fabric by incorporating even the selvages into traditional and not-so-traditional quilts with stunning and ecologically important results. When we channel our inner recycler by making salvaged quilts, we're staying connected with quilting history. It's our contemporary way of keeping quilt making as pure as those quilters who collected discarded pieces of fabric long before the rotary cutter was a gleam in Olfa's eye."

So, when you get over the grief of all the years of selvages lost, let yourself catch the spark of excitement and creativity that can be achieved with our most insignificant fabric crumbs.

NEWS FROM THE STATE GUILD

QUILT FEST

The Utah State Quilt Fest brochure is now out and registration is open. Quilt Fest will be held September 18-22 in St. George. It is a fun event and we hope that you will be attending. I will have some brochures at the June meeting if you would like one. But remember, you get a good discount for classes if you are a member of the Utah Quilt Guild. If you are entering a quilt in this show, please refer to the corrected information that was sent to you a little while ago

WASATCH FRONT SHOP HOP

June 13-16. The Theme this year is "Those Were The Days". Sounds like a fun one!

PETEETNEET'S ANNUAL QUILT

Show in Payson is June 15 to June 26.

SPRINGVILLE QUILT SHOW

July 14 to August 29. The museum is closed on Mondays and has extended hours on Wednesdays. On July 18, from 9:30 to 3:30, the Utah Valley Guild will hold their July Quilt Fair at the museum, so in addition to seeing the quilt show, there will be classes, a merchants mall, a silent auction and a tasters table with a chocolate fondue bar. There will also be two days of trunk shows at the museum featuring many local quilt artists. The trunk shows are Wednesday, August 8 from 6 to 8:30 and on Friday, August 10, from 11 to 1:30, two days you will not want to miss. This is a quilt show that everyone needs to attend.

If you have not yet bought a kit to make a block for the friendship quilt (the President Elect's fundraiser), you can buy these at the next meeting.

THIS IS THE PLACE HERITAGE PARK:

There are many activities at the park this summer. See the separate flyer for what is going on.

A NEW QUILT STORE

I also heard there is going to be a new quilt store opening in Coalville sometime in July. As soon as we receive any information we will let you know.

QUILT SHOW AT THE BARN

If you mark your calendars in advance like I do, the Quilt Show At The Barn in Salt Lake City will be Saturday, September 29. In the Beeline it states October and that is incorrect. This is another great quilt show to attend!

QUILT COLORADO

July 11-15. A five day quilting symposium with 18 national teachers teaching, in Loveland, Colorado. www.quiltcolorado.com

STEEL DAYS QUILT SHOW

July 19-21 at the American Fork Senior Center.

INTERNATIONAL ART COMPETITION EXHIBIT

Four members of the UQG have their beautiful works of art on display at the International Art Competition Exhibit at the Church History Museum in Sat Lake City, just west of Temple Square. The 198 piece exhibit of paintings, sculptures, textiles, etc., will continue until October 13, 2012. The UQG members include Carol B. Johnson, Donna Moyer, Ann Seely and Jodi Warner. Jodi's quilt was purchased by the museum to become part of their permanent collection.

QUILT SCHOLARSHIP

Did you know that the Utah Quilt Guild offers a scholarship for beginning quilters to attend Quilt Fest? You need to have been quilting less than 3 years, have started fewer than three large quilts or four wall hangings. It pays for one night at Quilt Fest and many other events, value of about $245.00.

THE BEELINE

So much more information in the Beeline Newsletter. Become a member for only $20 a year.
