July's President's Message:

The days are getting shorter and I am planning my holiday quilting and gift making. How about you? In this theme, the July meeting is a chance to show off your handmade ornaments or holiday projects. The guild is having “Christmas in July” at the home of Tricia Mathis, 704 East 400 South, Heber City. Jane Leapheart and Robin Hughes will show us how to make ornaments and you can make one to take home too! The evening includes a BBQ dinner and ice cream dessert. This will be a fun time to enjoy the warm evening breezes and friendships. I want to recognize the retreat committee for the exceptional event in June. Thank you to Kim Plavan, Debbie Proctor, Sally Siggard, and Deonn Stott.

Summary

Sew...what is the plan for our next Guild meeting on July 7th?

Christmas in July, Summer BBQ and ice cream social!!!

We are meeting at Tricia Mathis' ( 704 East 400 South, Heber City, Utah)

There will be a make and take with Jane Leaphart and Robin Hughes.

Sewing prompt: Hand made Oranament

See below what you need to be prepared for the Prairie Point Ornament:

Materials to bring for the prairie point ornament:

Sixteen 5 inch square (double folder into a triangle “prairie point” and pressed).

12 inches of satin cord or ribbon for hanger.

2 buttons to cover center of each side.

Extra long sewing needle (3 1/2 inch doll making needle works well.

30 inches of 30 weight thread.

The quilt will have some fabric , buttons, needles, and thread but you are encouraged to bring your own.

The Scandinavian star materials are also optional: Hot glue gun and silicone working mat.

If anyone is interested in seeing the projects, check out the websites.

Quilting activities for July

Some of the quilting events that will take place in July are:

American Fork Steel Days will have a Quilt Show on Thursday and Friday, July 7 and 8 from 10 to 7 and Saturday July 9, from noon to 4. This will be held at the American Fork Senior Center, 54 East Main Street.

The Springville Museum quilt show starts July 17 and runs through the middle of September. This is at the museum in Springville, a show you want to see.

Utah Valley Quilt Guild will hold their annual July Fair on July 19 at the Bridger Event Center, 1225 South Main in Spanish Fork. They will have twelve different classes that you can attend, for free, in addition to a huge yard sale, a quilt show and vendors. Hours are 9:30 to 3:30. Classes start every hour. For more info visit the UVQG website.

The International Quilt Festival will be holding their huge event July 21-23 at the Salt Palace in Salt Lake. There will be vendors, classes, quilts and special exhibits. Everyone should have received this information a few days ago from your individual guild. Should be a huge show to attend. Supposed to be over 600 quilts on display.

Have fun and be safe!
