Glory in Scraps Quilt Block

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Summer is ending too soon. School will be here before we know it. I register Carly for her Junior year at High School on Wed. We got Dallin registered for classes at UVU Wasatch Campus. I've been sewing a bit, getting some quilts done for the Sheriff's Charity Quilt Project. They are due at this week's meeting. I've also been working on my Hawaiian Applique Pillows, it has been fun to do some hand work, I find it very relaxing. Don't forget to bring your Block of the Month "Glory in Scraps" to turn in for your owl bucks. Bring sew and tell items to share.

I saw lots of quilts and projects from women in our Guild at the Fair. Way to go! It was fun to show my daughter all the items from people I know. We were able to watch the parade from my daughter's apartment above the Avon Theater. That was great not being out in the heat and above looking down at it. Now that my children are older, I don't need to sit below for them to get candy.

This week we are having an "Ugly Fabric Exchange". Bring a piece of fabric that is about 1/2 yard long, also bring scissors. We will be tearing it into strips and passing them around the room to share with everyone. Then it will be up to you to design and make a doll size quilt using this fabric. We will collect these quilts and donate them to Toys for Tots in Dec. If you want to give a doll along with your quilt that would be nice, but not required.

For Sept. Guild Meeting we are going to have a sewing night. We will have the room in the basement of the AM Bank open from 6:00 pm. Until 10:00 pm. Bring your sewing machine and supplies and have a night of sewing with your friends. Remember that the design challenge is due in Oct. So this will give us all an opportunity get caught up on some projects or sew whatever you want. Bring a snack to share with everyone and we will make it kind of a mini retreat.

See you Thursday!

NEWS FROM THE STATE GUILD

CHARITY QUILTS FOR OFFICERS

Please remember to bring your charity quilts for the police officers to the meeting on Thursday as we are going to deliver them the following week. There were several kits given out to some members and if, for some reason, you were not able to get the quilt sewn, could you please return the kits. We have had some good response from the other guilds in our area and we hope that the Heber Guild members are doing the same.

SPRINGVILLE ART MUSEUM

Make sure to visit the Springville Art Museum to see all of the beautiful quilts that are on display. The museum is open every day except Monday. The show runs through September 4. On August 14, from 6-8:30 pm and August 16, from 12:30 to 3:00, there will be quilt trunk shows given every half hour by different quilters from around the state. These are always fun events to attend. (held at the museum)

QUILT FESTIVAL

If you have not signed up for Quilt Fest in October at the Zermatt, remember that the classes are filling up fast, some already full. I have heard that the luncheons are near capacity too. Check out: www.utahquiltguild.org for all of the information.

THE BEELINE

Lots more information on quilting events going on around the state in the Beeline (Utah Quilt Guild newsletter)
