September 2021

Can you believe school is back in session already? This summer seemed to fly by. I can't believe how many things talking about Christmas I have seen already. I'm not ready for it to be cold yet, but I must admit, I love Fall the best. Cooler weather, football games, the changing of the leaves... It doesn't get any better than that for me.

I am so looking forward to our retreat this weekend! If you are attending, I'm excited to sew with you! If you aren't, we will miss you! We will be having a mini guild meeting on Friday night, August 20th at 6:00 PM at the Midway Community Center, if you would like to join us.

For our September meeting, I'm going to shift gears a little bit from the schedule and we are going to talk about quilt labels, and all of the different ways to create them. I originally planned to do this as a demo at the retreat, but I think it will be better as a demo during our meeting.

For our Sew n Tell Challenge for September, I want to see your non-quilty/sewing projects. I know there is a lot of talent in things other than quilting and sewing, and I want to see it!

Happy Sewing, and see you in September!

Ali

Our Guild Meeting will be at the Bank of Utah in Heber on Thursday, September 2nd, from 6PM to 8 PM in person and via Zoom.

Note: This is a recurring meeting, so the link will be the same for all of 2021. This is the Zoom meeting link:

Midway Swiss Days Opportunity

Midway Swiss Days! Are you interested in joining up for a booth at Swiss Days on September 3 & 4, 2021? We are looking for people to participate with handmade items to sell. If you just want to be part of the fun, we could use some help working shifts in the booth itself. For further questions, please contact Kim Plavan 760-504-3110 or kimplavan@gmail.com.

Utah Quilt Guild News

Don't forget to take a trip to the Springville Art Museum and see all of the beautiful quilts that are on display there. We have some amazing quilters in this area. Check their website for the hours that the museum is open. This is a free event and goes to September 18. The museum is closed on Sundays and Mondays.

Quilt Fest is fast approaching and hopefully you will also drive up for a day and see the big quilt show, visit the vendors and everything else that is going on. It will be at the Davis Convention Center in Layton, September 15-18.
