

Heber Valley Quilters Newsletter November 2021

Hi Everyone!

I can't believe we only have 2 meetings left this year!

At our meeting in October, Officers for next year were chosen:

President: Deonn Stott
Vice President/President Elect: Lara Wilson
Secretary/Treasurer: Carol Hunt
Photographer: Tamara Ellis
Refreshments: Shirley Zane
Communications/Newsletter: Leah Newitt
Retreat: Lara Wilson, Sally Siggard & Kim Plavan
Door Prizes: Kathy Davis
Design Challenge: Sandy Hindy
Charity: Debbie Proctor

At our November meeting, I will be going over different ideas for binding. For the Sew n Tell Challenge, I want to see your holiday quilts. I don't care if they are Easter, 4th of July or Christmas, I want to see them all! The WIP projects are also due in November.

For our meeting in December, there is a date change. We will be meeting on Wednesday, December 1. We will be doing an ornament exchange. For December refreshments, please bring your favorite party treat to share with everyone. We will also be voting on the design challenge quilts. If you have any questions about them, please let me know!

As a look ahead for next year, Deonn has a conflict the first Thursday in January, so guild meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 4.

Utah Quilt Guild News

For those of you who are members of the Utah Quilt Guild, the Midway Guild will be featured in the Beeline November newsletter telling about their recent challenge quilting event.

Many guilds are having quilting retreats, starting in January and going through the spring months, places like Cedar City, Bryce Canyon, Moab, Lava Hot Springs, Altamont, Vernal, St. George, Panguitch, etc. Lots of information in the upcoming Beeline newsletters.

Quilt Fest will be held in October next year in Ogden. If you are interested in teaching at this big event, check out the guild's website for all of the information. www.utahquiltguild.org. You can also sign up to become a member of the Utah Quilt Guild by going to their website.
