HEBER VALLEY QUILTERS

A Preview

Stained Glass Quilting

Shantelle Cox and Deonn Stott will be demonstrating Stained Glass appliqué quilts at guild meeting this month--a fun and easy method with beautiful results. In anticipation of the upcoming Christmas season, two kits/patterns will be offered: poinsettia blossom or a simple tree. Kits will include the Clover iron-on quick bias tape, freezer paper and a 2.5 ml. double needle. We will discuss patterns, materials, and equipment needed, as well as helpful hints and tips for success. We will also enjoy a small trunk show of guild members' stained glass quilt projects - and by the way, if you have ever made a stained-glass quilt, please bring it with you for Sew & Tell. Price of kits: Poinsettia - $5.50, Tree - $4. Pre-pay for kits at guild night and we will deliver within the following week. See you all there!

In Review ~ Beautiful Bags

Last month's guild meeting was a wonderful meeting of the BAG LADIES. Christy Watt led the workshop to make cute tote bags together. With several of the steps done beforehand, many of us were able to complete these darling little bags. These will make great Christmas or Birthday gifts. Thanks, Christy!

~~~ PLANNING MEETING ~~~

Brenda would like to invite board members and anyone else who is interested in serving on the board or giving input for next year's meetings to come to guild meeting an hour early (6:00 p.m.). Bring your ideas for classes and/or techniques you'd like to learn or teach. Let's have another wonderful year of quilting together!

Queen Bee - Barbara Murdock

Barbara was born in Salt Lake City, and lived in many different places, finally ending up in Francis as a teenager. She has two sisters, and their family loved camping and fishing nearly every week. She met her husband through her sister, whom he had also dated. They have lived in Salt Lake, California, and Vancouver, BC, Canada. When her husband's mother passed away, they moved back to Heber and added on and remodeled the house and have been here ever since.

She has four children, one son (Michele Murdock's husband) and three daughters, and enjoys having all but one of her children living here in the valley. She has 14 grandchildren. Her family still loves to go camping and have fun. They especially love going to the Escalante desert and hiking the narrow canyons. The narrower the better.

She taught her sister to tie a quilt many years ago, and she is now a very good quilter and teaches lots of classes. She begged her daughter-in-law, Michele, to take a class at Whimsy's, and she went reluctantly, but finished her project, and is now a very fine quilter. Her daughter Tricia joined the guild last year .

Barbara has always sewn, making clothing and costumes. She still feels like quilting is new to her, but she loves it. She has a nice sewing room, a large design wall, belongs to four different quilt guilds, has lots and lots of fabric, but not much time to make quilts. She loves traveling with her family and her sister, loves traveling to different quilting events and classes. She enjoys doing yard work, likes to wash and iron, but does NOT love to cook. She has worked for the past 20 or so years as an EMT with the county ambulance.

Barbara's dream is to live to be 120 years old. She has had two bouts with breast cancer, and hopes it is behind her now. She is ambitious, hard-working, and a fighter. She decided that she has too many places to go, and too many things to do that she can't allow worry to interfere with her life. Who knows, she may even live longer than 120!

Congratulations!!

Deonn Stott's Mexican Star quilt won First Place at the State Quilt Festival in the Non-Traditional Pieced category. Her Primitive Americana quilt, "Twelve Gifts of Birth" also received Jody Warner's Judge's Choice award. Way to Go!

Charity Quilt Corner

JEANNINE PRATT recently organized a group to help make lap quilts for the Herran twins. These are the little girls who were conjoined at birth, and recently separated. Jeannine has a tender place in her heart and felt very strongly that she would like to do something for these girls, who are the same age as her granddaughter. All three of Jeannine's grandchildren spent a lot of time in Newborn ICU, and you may recall that her grandson Kai only lived a short while. Thanks to those who helped make these quilts, and thanks to Jeannine for allowing us to be part of this project.

Happy birthday this month to Heather,

Cindy, Christy & Patty. We hope you have a happy one, and hope you have fun making a charity quilt for the Children's Justice Center. Let us know if you would like a kit, or if we can help in any other way.

Your Charity Quilt Committee

The Calico Road

by Barbara Murdock

What a busy quilting month! Friends and I attended the quilt art show at the U of U Art Museum - a bit too "artsy" for my taste - too many naked bodies... We spent five days at the State Quilt Fest in Layton and loved every minute, got very little sleep, and had so much fun! Shantelle and Deonn did great jobs teaching their classes, and Michele, Joan, Kaydawn and Linda were also able to attend either luncheons or classes. I am very excited about being the Summit area rep for the Utah Quilt Guild. I don't know if anyone was able to go to the quilt show "In the Barn" last Saturday, but it was superb.

A group of guild members were able to attend the Uintah Needle Arts Sewing Expo with Debbie Proctor this week, and really enjoyed the guest speaker, luncheon and classes held. Debbie and Deonn taught classes and I sold a lot of my little pin cushions. Yeah! More money for Houston! I took a sewing machine maintenance class that was very informative! That would be a great class for our guild. A few of us were able to attend Ruth Jensen's dimensional quilting class, and we can't wait for her book to come out in three weeks. Maybe we could have her come demonstrate at guild next year! What a wonderful woman, a breast cancer survivor of three years, who has put her whole heart into designing these fun and beautiful dimensional quilts.

On the way back from Roosevelt, we dropped Linda Beecher off, and were able to have a tour of her lovely home, nestled at the bottom of Daniels Canyon. It's on a little 10

-acre spread complete with donkeys, goats, and a herd of wild turkeys in her back yard. She has a great sewing space with an expandable cutting table, design wall, shelves, closets, see-through gadget caddys and a TV mounted on the wall. I can't wait for our Sewing Space Hop next month.

I'll be heading to Houston at the end of the month for the International Quilt Festival with my sister Bonnie. It's our fifth visit, and I can't wait. But first it's a day with Alex Anderson on October 19th. Check with Celeni (801)785-2787 about tickets reserved for the 6:00 session. She was able to get a reduced price for guild members.

I have plans to go to the "Road to California" quilt show in January in Ontario, CA, or maybe I can go with the St. George guild on the Las Vegas Shop Hop. Closer to home, Winterfest at Daniel's Summit will be Jan 25-27, with guest teacher Carrie Nelson of Miss Rosie's Quilt Company. For more info, go online to www.HQNAWinterfest.com or you can call Kim Williams at (435) 563-5378 to have a brochure mailed to you.

I am hoping that the day will come when most of you can attend some of these exciting events and be filled with inspiration and learn so many new things. I just wish that I has started quilting 15 years ago!

~ Barb
